1968 AFL WESTERN DIVISION PLAYOFF GAME

OAKLAND 41, KANSAS CITY 6
December 22, 1968, at Oakland.  Attendance 53,605

Daryle Lamonica threw touchdown passes on three of the Raiders' first four possessions, as Oakland jumped to a massive early lead; he then went on to pass for two more scores, as the Raiders destroyed the AFL's stingiest defense 41-6 in a game between the two teams with the best records in the League.

Lamonica, who passed for 347 yards, took the Raiders on scoring drives of 80 and 70 yards, and one in between that had to go only 25 yards after a shanked punt.  The Chiefs threatened to get back into the game in the second quarter, driving to the Raiders' 3 and 2 on separate possessions.  But each time they had to settle for short field goals, and then Lamonica gave them the knock-out punch, throwing a 54-yard touchdown pass to Fred Biletnikoff with 28 seconds left in the half.

1968 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
NY JETS 27, OAKLAND 23

With two minutes left, what the Raiders projected as the winning drive suddenly ended when, with the ball at the New York 24, Daryle Lamonica threw a swing pass to rookie halfback Charlie Smith. Smith did not catch the ball, nor did he cover it, and the play was ruled a lateral rather than a forward pass. Linebacker Ralph Baker recovered for the Jets, who were able to run out the clock for a 27-23 victory.

Despite icy winds, the Jets scored on their first drive, with Joe Namath hitting Don Maynard for the touchdown. They increased the lead to 10-0 before Lamonica responded with a 29-yard touchdown pass to Fred Biletnikoff.

New York led 13-10 at halftime, but George Blanda tied the game 13-13 with a 9-yard field goal early in the third quarter. But Namath got the lead right back when he hit tight end Pete Lammons with a 20-yard touchdown pass.

Midway through the fourth quarter, the only interception of the game was returned by George Atkinson to the New York 5. Pete Banaszak then scored to give the Raiders a 23-20 lead. But Namath took less than a minute to lead his team to another score, finishing with a six-yard toss to Maynard.
